

Starting Well

Commissioning Delivery Plan Update April 2019

Lee Golze

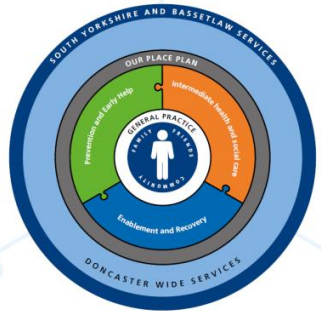

Head of Strategic Commissioning

Young Advisors

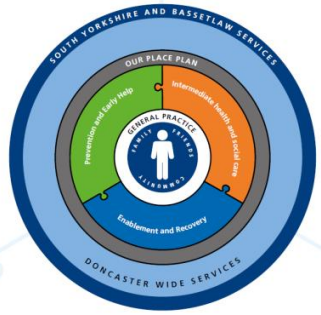

Contents

1. Introductions
2. Executive Summary
3. Young Advisors
4. Areas of Progress
5. Areas of Focus
6. Points of Interest
7. Questions

Executive Summary

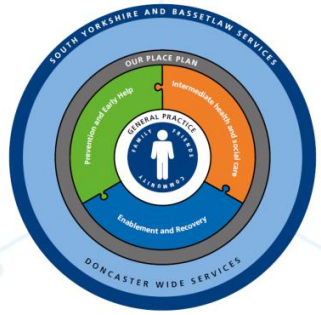

- Starting Well is the term for all children, young people and maternity services.
- First time we have a joint commissioning delivery plan (The Council, Clinical Commissioning Group & Children's Trust)
- For the most parts progress has been positive with the majority of areas being at least as expected.
- Only Borough in the country to zero admissions into an acute mental health setting for young people with learning disability and/ or autism.
- 1,001 days business case approved.
- Young Commissioners & Young Advisors
- Evolving ownership of the delivery plan.
- Leads updating and relevant sections.
- The Joint Commissioning & Resource Group is the home for the joint commissioning plan.

Young Advisors

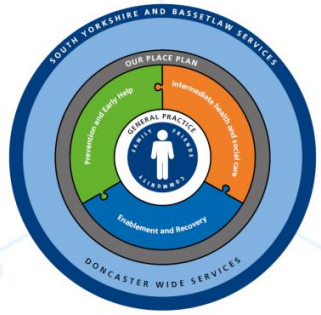

- Who they are and why they applied to be young advisors?
- What their plans are on the work around Mental Health?
- Questions

Areas of Progress

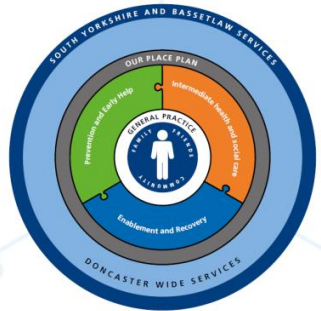

- 1,001 days business case approved.
- Maternity score card and workforce mapping exercise.
- Secondary school engagement.
- Bader school.
- Trailblazer progress.
- Young Advisors and Young Commissioners.
- Transforming Care Partnerships.
- Joint commissioning arrangements.
- Health Visitors meeting targets for 5 mandated healthy child programme visits.

Areas of Focus

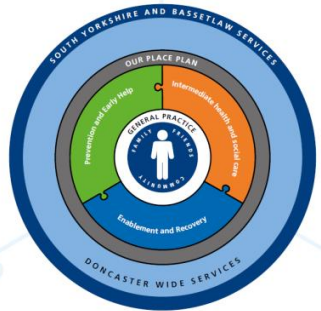

- Children's community nursing review and new service specification.
- Children's therapy services and new service specification.
- Local Transformation Plan quarter report.
- Vulnerable adolescents business case.
- Education Health Care Plans.
- Exclusions.
- Attendance.

Points of Interest

- Future Placements Strategy
- Collaboratives
- Young Commissioners
- Doncaster Children's Trust – new arrangements

Questions

Lee.golze@doncaster.gov.uk